

KEYNOTES

Kate Jeffery

Title: TBA

Date: TBA

Kate Jeffery is Professor of Behavioural Neuroscience at University College London. She studies how the brain encodes three-dimensional space and its role in navigation.

Niall McLaughlin

Title: TBA

Date: TBA

Niall McLaughlin is a practicing Architect and Professor of Architectural Practice at the Bartlett School of Architecture, University College London. In 2021 he received the award for Outstanding Contribution to Architecture from the Building & Architect of the Year Awards and he was shortlisted for the Sterling Prize in 2013, 2015, and 2018. He has designed, written and spoken extensively on designing for dementia.

Patrik Schumacher

Title: TBA

Date: TBA

Patrik Schumacher is an architect and architectural theorist based in London. He is the principal architect of Zaha Hadid Architects. In his recent books he has proposed a new agenda for contemporary architecture to respond to the challenges and opportunities posed by current societal and technological developments.

Nick Tyler

Title: TBA

Date: TBA

Nick Tyler is the Director of the UC London Centre for Transport Studies and is the Chadwick Chair of Civil Engineering. His research explores how people interact with their immediate environments. He is a Co-Investigator on the UK Government's Co-laboratorium for Research on Infrastructure and Cities.